In the quietness of our hearts
we offer up prayers for those we care for:

Charlotte Bailey

God of compassion,

We pray for those who are ill, afraid or in isolation.
In their loneliness, be their consolation;
in their anxiety, be their hope;
in their darkness, be their light;
through him who suffered alone on the cross,
but reigns with you in glory,

Amen.

Do you know anyone who is sick, bereaved or in need of a visit or flowers?
Or has moved to this area or Church?
If so, please contact Kathy Griffin

CHURCH OUTING

An outing is being organised to St Fagans on Wednesday 13th May. This is a FREE trip. If you are interested in going, please sign up on the list on the noticeboard in the Beacon hall.

If you have any questions,

Our next Holy Communion Service is THIS Sunday ALL ARE WELCOME AT OUR LORD'S TABLE

As part of ensuring that we as a church are as welcoming, inclusive and as accessible as we can be, please note that the bread we use for Holy Communion is gluten free. The wine is, as always, non-alcoholic.

Everyone is welcome to receive the bread and wine during holy communion. For those who would prefer to just receive a blessing, then simply keep your hands down when you come forward.

If you would rather not receive the elements nor have a blessing, that is fine and simply remain seated.

If you find it difficult to come to the front of the church, the bread and wine can be brought to you.

Children are encouraged to receive the bread and wine as part of the church family, if their parents/carers are happy that they do so.

Every now and again, communion is served in a different way and the elements are brought around to everyone where they are sitting and we all eat and drink together.

Easter Worship and Holy Communion, 10.30am

Tea/Coffee and Croissants/Pastries 'on offer'
BEFORE the Service, from 9.30am (Tea/Coffee also available AFTER the Service)

Please remember to bring a flower(s) to put on the flower cross in the church during this Easter service.
